BREAKING THE SOLID SOUTH.

It is very natural that it should be differences of opinion in regard to the methods that ought to be adopted in the effort to break up the solid south. President Harrison has his opinion, and that seems to be to appoint a certain class of democrats to office in the southern states. He told the Louisiana republican delegation the other day that he intended to pursue a line of policy that would prove a benefit to every citizen of the south, white and colored, and secure a fair vote and an honest count at the elections. None but the best men, the most influential, the most respected, he said, were to receive office in the southern states, and if he could not find republicans who answered this description he would take democrats. It is always the best thing to put the best men in office. But there will be no excuse for appointing democrats to office in the south on the ground that there are no good republicans in the southern states. President Harrison gave the Louisiana republican delegation to understand that a democrat who came into the republic fold at the eleventh hour deserved quite as much as a republican who had borne the heat and the burden of the day in many battles for his party. This may be good theory, but the wise law of compensation, common sense and the best judgment of practical men, are against it. It is not business neither is it fair play. The beautiful saying that "there is more joy over one sinner that repenteth than over the ninety and nine that never went astray," is largely robbed of its beauty when applied to the political conversion of men. A new-comer should be warmly welcomed, but he should not be given the chief seat while the old wheel-horses, the well tried men of the party are invited to take a back seat. Political battles would never be won, and business of no kind would ever succeed, if this principle were adopted.

The only way to push politics and business is to adopt the law of compensation. Every man who works should get pay for it. Reward those who labor, always. Pay them according to their power of producing. Those who work hard and are true, should wear the crown. A man or woman who has labored twelve hours, by every rule of justice, deserves more than one who lags at the eleventh hour. The ninety and nine who worked and remained faithful, should receive quite as much praise as the one who didn't wake up to a sense of his duty until the last hour of the day. Mr. Hayes tried the Harrison theory. It proved a miserable failure. There was no good in it. It made the south stronger, and the north weaker. Harrison's policy will do the same thing.

THE DEATH OF THE MEDICAL BILL.

The assembly has done a wise thing in defeating the medical bill. The bill was in the nature of a strange piece of legislation. Why the bill was introduced in the first place, it is difficult to tell. The people did not seem to demand it. They never suggested to the legislature that they wanted a law that would suppress any particular school of physicians. They never made a complaint against the present law on the subject, and have never intimated to any legislator that they were imposed upon by incompetent medical men. Then why was the bill created. Just to please a certain class of doctors.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Col. Robert G. Ingersoll has the reputation of giving more money yearly to writers, porters and bell boys than any other man in the United States. John E. Burton has bought the original manuscript of the "Sweet by and by," for $1,000. Sam Small, the evangelist, is in New York. Sam made a gallant fight for state senator from the Atlanta (Ga.) district, but was beaten. Now he proposes to run for congress in the Sixth District of Georgia, which is at present represented by Judge Stewart.

Ex-Mayor Vaux, of Philadelphia, is the only living American who ever danced with Queen Victoria. He is an old fashioned Quaker City lawyer, wears a swallow-tail coat and broad-brimmed hat, and carries a green baize bag.

Rev. Fred D. Hale, pastor of a Baptist church in Louisville, has inaugurated a new fashion in collections. He announces before the sermon the amount he desires gathered in, and if the collection falls short he summarily dismisses the congregation without sermon or benediction.

Do not suffer Any Longer. Knowing that a cough can be checked in a day, and the first stages of consumption broken in a week, we hereby guarantee Dr. Acker's English Remedy for consumption, and will refund the money to all who buy, take it in any directions, and do not find our statement correct. Prentice & Evenson, Druggists.

A Kentucky Farmer Murdered. MADRID, Neb., April 6.—The body of E. C. Maher, a homesteader, was found yesterday in the sand hills four miles from his home. He had been shot in the head and robbed. On Tuesday last he went to Imperial, proved his claim, and then borrowed $500 on it. With $250 in his pocket—the rest having been paid out in Imperial—he started for home on the following day. A neighbor who went with him to prove up purchased a draft at Ogallala the day following the murder and has not been seen since.

The Rochester Street-Car Struck. ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 6.—The street-car strike is still on and both sides are firm. The company has twenty-three cars running today. The strikers are about one hundred and sixty in all, joined the strikers this morning. Last night two turn-tables on the outskirts of the city were stolen and obstructed placed on the tracks in many places. The strikers claim that roughs did the work.

Terrible. Two-thirds of all deaths in New York City are from consumption or pneumonia. The same proportion holds for most other cities. Delays are dangerous. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption will always cure, and may save your life. Prentice & Evenson, Druggists.

HORRORS OF THE PRAIRIE.

TERRIBLE TALES OF THE DAKOTA DEVASTATION.

The Pitiable Condition of a Fleeting Woman—The Death List Considerably Augmented.

St. PAUL, Minn., April 6.—The list of losses by prairie fires in Dakota increases and the descriptions of hair-breadth escapes are very thrilling. In Yankton county the damage is placed at $150,000. Near Rapid City Prof. G. E. Bailey's ranch was destroyed. When a party of neighbors drove through the blinding smoke to the rear of the house an appalling sight met their gaze. Standing in a little hollow below the ruins of the house was Eloise Madison, blistered and scorched and burned, with barely a shred of clothing upon her. Her clothing, save the collar of her dress, part of the stocking on her right foot, and the right shoe, had been completely burned from her body, which presented an awful appearance, hardly a spot upon her escaping unburned. Standing motionless and conscious of her terrible condition she greeted the first person who came to her with the ejaculation: "My God! Can't you do something for me?"

Strong men shuddered and for a moment turned away, but for a moment only, when ready hands did everything that could be done for her.

A Race for Life.

Mrs. G. E. Bailey, in whose employ the young girl was, and William Ashton, the hired man, had a very narrow escape, and, as it was, suffered painful but not dangerous injuries. Mrs. Bailey was when the fire caught the dwelling it blazed like tinder and allowed them no alternative but to run for their lives. This they did, Mr. Ashton taking the women by the arm and starting with them through the smoke and flames. They had gone but a short distance when Miss Madison fell. The smoke was so thick that when they stopped to look for her she could not be seen, and, thinking that she had gone in another direction, they resumed their efforts to escape. After a severe struggle they succeeded in reaching the windward side of the fire and made their way to a neighboring ranch.

At George Hunt's place the family had just seated themselves at the dinner table when Mrs. Hunt saw sparks flying in through a crack in the kitchen. Seizing a blanket apiece the people in the house threw them over their heads and started from the building. By good fortune all succeeded in reaching a place of safety. For twenty feet the path was through a sheet of flame fifty feet high. Many of the other farms on Rapid valley barely escaped the wild flames which sped across the ground like a flash of lightning. The wind was blowing at the rate of sixty miles an hour. Had the velocity of the wind been less more damage would have been done. As it was, the fire was confined to a narrow strip of country, enabling those from the city to beat out the flames with wet sacks.

Thirty-Two Families Homeless.

Thousands of dollars' worth of property was destroyed within ten miles of Freeman. Thirty-two families lost their homes, only escaping partly clothed. Machinery, grain, hay and a great amount of stock were burned. The unfortunate farmers are entirely destitute and without food or shelter.

In Douglas county the fire was one of the worst ever known. Many farmers lost everything and are homeless and destitute. The house of William Cline was burned. Mrs. Cline perishing in the flames. She was 70 years old and was the mother of E. W. Cline, prosecuting attorney of Douglas county.

At Woonsocket there was a perfect hurricane. The wind blew off nearly the whole south side of the Bank of Woonsocket, a brick building. Outbuildings were tipped over, sidewalks blown up, and cornices taken off of several business houses. During the afternoon the smoke and cinders were so dense in town one could hardly see across the street, and a great fear was entertained lest the fire might get into the town. The destruction to the farmers by fire will foot up thousands of dollars. The wind did not entirely abate until yesterday.

At Ashton the air was so full of dust that a person could not see 100 yards distant. Several buildings in this town were stripped of their tin roofs, while numerous buildings and fences were blown down.

News came in from Faulk county, west of Abol, that a furious prairie fire raged all the afternoon and evening. The light from the fires could be seen from Abol. Numerous farmers lost all they had. There will be great suffering in that part of Faulk county.

Near Caledonia lake lives Frank Goodfellow. He was away from home when the fire came. Mrs. Goodfellow and her three children heroically fought the flames for several hours, and then were forced to get down on their knees while the flames passed over them. Mrs. Goodfellow is so badly burned that she will probably die.

In Bruce county casualties are being reported daily. Fully one hundred families have lost everything. The loss reaching $250,000. Two women were burned to death near Chamberlain. It is reported that the latter place that the fire was started by Indians on the reservation. Crow Creek agency had a narrow escape.

Deaths Near Highmore. HIGHMORE, Dak., April 6.—The prairie fire was more destructive and calamitous than at first supposed. A revised list of deaths is as follows: Miss Annie Sweeney, Mrs. Thomas Tibbs and a boy of 4 years, Mrs. Jessup, Mrs. Ruby, and two boys whose names are not known. Several others are severely burned. Fifteen families are left homeless and penniless, and over fifty have suffered serious losses. Several persons are missing, and it is feared they are burned.

Had Better Buy a Fire Engine. TWIN, Ohio, April 6.—Fire broke out at 3 o'clock this morning at Atlas and burned a large section of the business part of town. Atlas had a $100,000 fire three years ago, but did not get a fire engine. The principal losers are the Atlas Journal, the Atlas Current Ware, A. Hassler, residence; John Whitener, J. Herbst, and A. Weiser, each a saloon. Mrs. J. N. Lepple, Mrs. Osborn, military stores; M. O. Pike, hotel; Lowe's photograph gallery, Shellhorn's grocery. Dr. Blaine's office, and half a dozen other buildings. Loss, $25,000; insured for one-half.

Many Inquiries After Booth. NEW YORK, April 6.—The Players' club on Gramercy Park was besieged with callers this morning, and hundreds of inquiries were made regarding Edwin Booth's health. The great actor is resting quietly, and, acting on the advice of his physician, receives no callers.

Do you ask for a test of SOZODONT's powder, just talk to a lady for half an hour: If her breath is sweet, if her teeth are white, if her gums are clean, if her gums are bright, if her mouth is pure and her teeth are bright, she uses the SOZODONT, then, we mean.

Cataract Cured. A clergyman, after years of suffering from this terrible disease, and having vainly tried every known remedy at last found a recipe which completely cured and saved him from death. Any sufferer from this dreadful disease sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to Prof. J. A. Lawrence, 88 Warren St., New York city, will receive the recipe free of charge.

The Rochester Street-Car Struck. ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 6.—The street-car strike is still on and both sides are firm. The company has twenty-three cars running today. The strikers are about one hundred and sixty in all, joined the strikers this morning. Last night two turn-tables on the outskirts of the city were stolen and obstructed placed on the tracks in many places. The strikers claim that roughs did the work.

Terrible. Two-thirds of all deaths in New York City are from consumption or pneumonia. The same proportion holds for most other cities. Delays are dangerous. Dr. Acker's English Remedy for Consumption will always cure, and may save your life. Prentice & Evenson, Druggists.

THE WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE.

The Business Considered in the Senate and House Early This Morning.

Both Houses Adjourned Until Ten O'clock on Tuesday Morning.

Special to the Gazette.

MADISON, April 6.—The assembly passed the following bill:

Reducing the price of state lands.

When necessary, authorizing the publication of 9,500 railway maps.

To increase the salary of the state superintendent to $2,000.

Protecting fish in northern lakes.

Prohibiting the sale of intoxicants on Memorial day.

Defending individual liability of stockholders for safe deposit of moneys paid into courts.

Giving workmen in saw mills lien for wages on lumber manufactured therein.

Requiring that deputy collectors be appointed by inspector instead of being selected by common council.

Punishing manufacturers of fraudulent butter and cheese.

Providing that books of insurance companies can be used in evidence.

Repealing the law providing penalties for failure on neglect of bankers to make reports to state treasurer.

Establishing system of indeterminate sentences for convicted criminals.

To regulate business of loan and building associations.

Providing that general law for registration of electors shall not apply to municipal or judicial elections.

Both houses adjourned until Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

How Doctors Conquer Death.

Dr. Walter K. Hammond says: "After a long experience I have come to the conclusion that two-thirds of all deaths from cough, pneumonia and consumption, might be avoided if Dr. Acker's English Remedy for consumption were only used in time." This wonderful remedy is sold under a positive guarantee by Prentice & Evenson, druggists.

To the Public.

All space in my cold storage warehouse is rented with the exception of two compartments. Those who call first will be served first. More clean money can be made on an investment of one thousand dollars in butter and eggs than in any other way. O. B. CENRAD.

Interested People.

Advertising a patent medicine in the peculiar way in which the proprietor of Kemp's Balsam for coughs and colds does is indeed wonderful. He authorizes all druggists to give those who call for a sample bottle free, that they may try it before purchasing. The large bottles are 50c and $1.00. We certainly would advise a trial. It may save you from consumption.

THE BALL PLAYERS.

They Arrive in New York from Their Trip Around the World.

NEW YORK, April 6.—The Adriatic, with the base ball tourists aboard, was sighted at 2 o'clock Saturday morning. One hundred lovers of base ball cruised through the lower bay Friday anxiously awaiting to tender a welcome to the tourists who were due on the Adriatic. All through the afternoon they watched, but in vain, for no Adriatic hove in sight, and it was with regret that the bow of the Laura M. Stanton was turned cityward without having greeted a welcome to the boys.

At 3 o'clock Saturday morning, however, word was received that the Adriatic had been sighted, and the party at once went out to meet her. Arrangements had been made with the officials by which the returning ball-players were transferred from the steamer to the Government boat, and brought at once to the city. During their stay here the ball-players will be entertained at the Fifth Avenue hotel.

GENTLEMEN who are bald will appreciate the Ivory Soap for washing the head, for it quickly removes the oily exudations of the scalp and by the application of clear water after the head and hair are well lathered, the soap is instantly rinsed off, in other words it does not leave a gummy substance on the scalp, or the hair harsh and stiff with dry lather. The "Ivory" is, par excellence, the soap for the purpose.

A WORD OF WARNING.

There are many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the 'Ivory'." They ARE NOT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qualities of the genuine. Ask for "Ivory" Soap and insist upon getting it.
